

PRESS & COMMUNICATIONS

COMMUNICATIONS OFFICERS

We are a Left-wing political group in the European Parliament fighting for workers, climate action, feminism, peace & human rights. We seek to recruit two communications officers.

ABOUT THE ROLES

The successful candidates will lead and contribute to the production and dissemination of press and communications content across a range of policy areas.

They will be able to convert political positions into clear messages, raising awareness of our core issues - workers' rights, climate justice, feminism, peace, and human rights - among international media and the public.

They will be able to deliver effective planning and organisation of all facets of communications outreach.

They will have a strong grasp of EU politics, and the diverse tactics needed to ensure effective communications on behalf of our MEPs and issues.

They will work with MEPs, policy advisers, and the rest of the communications team to disseminate our messages to the media and public on EU policy.

TASKS & RESPONSIBILITIES

- Develop creative and targeted strategies to promote the Group's positions
- Recognise media and communications opportunities and act to increase impact
- Organise, promote, and ensure successful press conferences and briefings
- Contribute to, and plan, content for use across various communications channels

February 2020

HOW TO APPLY

Send us a motivation letter (maximum one A4 page) and your CV (preferably in Europass format) by 18 February 2021 12.00 CET to the following email address: left.applications@europarl.europa.eu.

Please identify your key skills and areas of expertise in your cover letter. CVs should clearly include exact start and end dates of any relevant work and educational experience (see the GUENGL CV at www.left.eu/vacancies look into General information for the level of detail preferred.)

Interviews will be scheduled for late February / early March 2021.

Only applications meeting the above-mentioned criteria will be considered.

Only candidates selected for interviews will be notified.

ABOUT US

The Left in the European Parliament brings together MEPs from a range of European left and progressive parties - ecological, socialist, feminist, communist and independent. Staff should be comfortable in this environment and both capable of, and fully at ease with, supporting our MEPs in their policy objectives.

The Left is an equal opportunities employer with a strong commitment to gender equality, diversity and inclusion. We encourage members of groups at risk of discrimination to apply for this post.

- Closely follow European Parliamentary work and plenary sessions
- Maintain relationships with MEPs and related staff both in Brussels and member states
- Lead and provide communications support for events and launches of publications

REQUIREMENTS

Essential

- Political affinity and passion for our political values
- Experience working in communications and/or journalism
- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- Extensive knowledge of EU policy debates
- Understanding of key social media platforms for news and current affairs
- Enthusiasm for teamwork and positive collaboration with colleagues
- Creativity, resourcefulness, and professionalism with a strong work ethic
- Ability to work under pressure
- High linguistic level in English & some of the following languages - French, German, Spanish
- Ability to work occasionally at weekends and during holidays
- Experience in a multicultural, multilingual working environment
- Familiarity with European media landscape & Brussels-based media scene
- Ability to foster relations with journalists & maintain a network of media contacts

Desirable

- Education and training in Journalism, Communications or similar subjects
- Familiarity with SEO, Social Media Analytics, and Adobe Creative Suite
- Familiarity with audiovisual content production

PRACTICAL DETAILS

Positions to be filled ideally in March 2021.

The initial contracts will be for 2 years, renewable.

You will be based in Brussels with possible regular international travel and occasional work in unusual hours.

The successful candidates will be recruited as Contract agents in Function Group III, step depending on years of experience. Salary and allowances, under the EU institutions system, depend on experience, country of origin and family situation. We offer extensive and continuous training opportunities for development.

GENERAL CONDITIONS FOR ADMISSION

The selection procedure is open to any candidate provided they:

- are a national of one of the Member States of the Communities, unless an exception is authorized by the authority referred to in the first paragraph of Article 6, of the Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities (CEOS) and enjoys their full rights as a citizen.
- have fulfilled any obligations imposed on them by the laws concerning military service.