

Marseille France

08-10 February 2022

PROGRAMME

World Trade Centre, WTC, Meeting Room Océanie 2, rue Henri Barbusse, 13001 Marseille
Interpretation: EN, FR, DE, EL, ES, PT | Cabin languages: EN, FR, DE, EL, ES, PT

TUE 8 February

09:15-09:30

Opening and Welcome

- Manon Aubry and Martin Schirdewan, The Left Co-Presidents of The Left

09:30-11:15

Exchange of views with La France Insoumise leaders on the political situation in France and Europe

11:30-13:00

Panel - Social Emergency in the working world: the case of platform workers

Chair: Nikolaj Villumsen, The Left MEP

- Leïla Chaïbi, The Left MEP
- Brahim Ben Ali, VTC driver, general secretary of INV union
- Alice Jubeau, Director of Public and European affairs, Union independents.co
- Odile Chagny, Economist & Researcher, co-founder of Sharers & Workers

12:00-13:00

Press Conference, room Shanghai

15:40-17:40

Field visit SCOP TI 1336

Visit by small groups of the factory, discussions with the cooperative members on the history of SCOP TI. Q&A

In 2010, Unilever Company wanted to close the Gémenos tea factory. The workers then fought for 1336 days to save their factory. In 2014, the signing of the end-of-conflict protocol with Unilever definitely closes the battle and the workers decided to form a cooperative SCOP TI 1336.

WED 9 February - End of world, end of month, same fight

09:15-10:30

Part 1 - Tackling the climate crisis by putting social justice at the centre

Chair: Marc Botenga, The Left MEP

- Roland Kulke, Transform! Europe
- Pablo Sanchez Centellas, EPSU
- Audrey Garino, Member of PCF National Council

11:00-13:00

Part 2 - Ending Energy poverty and providing housing for all

Chair: Marisa Matias, The Left MEP

- Manuel Bompard, The Left MEP
- Kévin Vacher, Collectif du 5 Novembre, Marseille
- Sarah Coupechou, Fondation Abbé Pierre

MEPs Contribution and concluding remarks

15:30-17:45

Field visit Après M

Visit and discussions with volunteers l'Après M

L'Après Mis a citizen and voluntary food aid platform located in the northern district of Marseille. The platform takes place in a former requisitioned McDonald's restaurant.