

COMMUNICATIONS INTERN

This communications internship is a full-time position from October 2023 until the end of March 2024 within The Left in the European Parliament-GUE/NGL. We're looking for an energetic, dedicated and teamwork-oriented person who can manage multiple tasks. Political affinity with and commitment to the values of The Left, willingness to learn, and ability to adapt to shifting priorities are essential.

DETAILS

Location:
Brussels

Salary:
1.495 eur
per month;
complementary insurance coverage included

Dates:
9 October 2023
to 31 March 2024

DUTIES

Depending on the skill set, this individual will assist with communications tasks including, but not limited to:

- social media content, planning, research and support in coordination with the social media community manager;
- back up in competitor analysis to identify trends and opportunities across social media platforms;
- press work & press mailbox support, media monitoring;
- photo and video production help under the guidance of the audiovisual team;
- assistance with campaigns, research and contribution to the development of databases and voting analyses for use by campaigners;
- graphic design back-up, stockroom management, event support, and other communications and administrative support tasks as required;
- creative support in brainstorming ideas and products targeting the web audience
- support in organisation and debriefing of communications team meetings.

ABOUT THE LEFT

The Left in the European Parliament stands up for workers' rights, climate justice, feminism, peace & human rights. What unites us is the vision of a socially equitable and sustainable Europe based on international solidarity.

HOW TO APPLY

If you're interested in applying for this internship, send a CV and motivation letter to left.applications@europarl.europa.eu with a copy to david.lundy@europarl.europa.eu by 04/10/2023 EOB, quoting 'Internship' in the subject line.

September 2023